Strawberry Tea for Grandparents on National 'Grandparent's Day'

The children at Woodlands Day Nursery in Timperley invited their grandparents into nursery for a Strawberry Tea last Friday to celebrate national Grandparent's Day. The children made their own invitations and rehearsed their favourite songs so that, on the day, they could celebrate this special event by putting on a performance in the garden whilst over 40 grandparents tucked into a delicious cream tea made by the Nursery's highly skilled Chef, Helen Krawczyk.

The imaginative menus and dietician-checked meals offered to the children attending Woodlands Day Nursery have been recognised by Nursery World Magazine, who selected Woodlands as a national finalist for their Food Award 2009, which will be announced at the Nursery World Awards ceremony at Grosvenor House in London next week.

Woodlands Day Nursery has also this summer been awarded 'Outstanding Provider' status by OFSTED, one of only two in the Altrincham area, and a level of quality attained by only 9% of Day Nurseries nation-wide.
